Individual Application Form For Travel To Cuba

All travelers under U.S. jurisdiction (residents as well as citizens) must be covered by general or specific license of the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the U.S. Treasury Department. Please complete the accompanying Travel Affidavit, and if traveling under a specific license already in hand, send us a copy of all pages of the license and if an institutional license, an authorization on letterhead of your travel under the license for the specific dates of travel. We must receive originals of the Travel Affidavit and the Letter of Authorization. A summary of the current regulations accompanies this application and the regulations may be read in more detail at the OFAC website, www.ustreas.gov/ofac. While Common Ground does not have legal authority or expertise, and it is the responsibility of each traveler to comprehend and conform to the regulations, we will be glad to assist you in understanding the regulations and/or in applying for a specific license.

As of July 15, 2005, the service fee for individuals booking travel to Cuba with Common Ground is $200 per person, of which $50 is applied to hotel or other in country services. The service fee must accompany this application. Please see the Common Ground cancellation policy at the end of this application. Note: This is a PDF file and may be typed filled in on the computer.
